A word about QC's

Kate & Andrew opened their restaurant in 2000, over the last 15 years they have built a wonderful team around them, and have won many awards, including BIM seafood restaurant, of the year, and best casual dining restaurant in Ireland. In 2012 they added on a stunning townhouse, with six fantastic rooms, affording it to be included in John and Sally McKenna's, top 100 places to stay in Ireland. In 2016 they added on a further 5 rooms, including a stunning Suite, a clay pigeon shoot, state of the art golf simulating studio and a swanky new gym!

QC's is an ideal place to stay whilst discovering this magical and magnificent part of the wild Atlantic way, should you be interested we would be delighted to show around.

All the fish served in QC's is supplied from our family fish business, "Quinlan's", we serve fresh sustainable fish and seafood direct from our own boats. For over 50 years the Quinlan family has been catching, processing and retailing the very finest sustainably caught seafood. Should you be traveling in Kerry during your visit we also have a seafood bar in Killarney and Tralee
